

Achilles Health Management Promotion Policy

We believe that the curiosity, diverse abilities, unique ideas, and inspirations of each individual employee are the sources for creating solutions that contribute to society. To fully harness these sources, we are committed to promoting health management by establishing a workplace environment where everyone can work for a long time with peace of mind, both physically and mentally, and by enhancing job satisfaction, productivity, and creativity.